

This has been done. I take it for granted that I have the consent of the Speaker to raise the issue.

† MADAM SPEAKER.—It is only the members presumption. Is there any consent?

† Sri D. DEVARAJ URS.—The hon. member can explain his stand provided the hon. Speaker wants the member to explain before the question of admissibility or otherwise has to be decided by the Speaker. As I understand the Speaker just now said that she is looking into the question, whether it is to be admitted or not. Sometimes there were occasions when the Speaker used to ask a member under what provisions of law or reasonings a privilege motion could be admitted before taking a decision. I understand the Chair has not asked the member to explain the position. Such being the situation, I cannot really understand why the hon. member is taking so much time of the House unnecessarily. I must say, by explaining the entire subject matter on which he wants to bring the privilege motion. The Speaker will kindly put an end to all this and proceed with the business of the House.

MADAM SPEAKER.—Yes, I have said that I will look into this—whether it is to be admitted or not.
